

Elite Animation Academy is an art and Animation program designed for students interested in the Art of Animation. Our classes are during the week and on Saturdays, with convenient afternoon and evening hours. Our classes are small to provide you with a more personal connection with the instructor. Elite Animation Academy has formed relationships with known Art and Design Schools such as Ringling Art and Design College, Full Sail University, SCAD, School of the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston and The University of Central Florida- School of Visual Arts and Design, to name a few. Our Co-Founder is a former Walt Disney Studios Florida Animator, a graduate of the prestigious Ringling College of Art and Design located in Sarasota, FL. Combined, our instructors have over 50 years' experience in the industry working for Walt Disney Feature Animation, Marvel and other major movie studios. We do not charge "per class" we charge a tuition rate that is broken up into three equal payments. The real question is can you afford not to invest in your child's education? Most schools have cut Art programs which we feel in is vital and part of an education of a well - rounded student.
